for at today's sub-committee meeting will be held on February 16th at Stratford Senior Center from 7-11 PM it will be the valentines themed dance and karaoke night. Flyers for that event are on the back table as well as the South Jersey area of NA website please grab one if you already have not. On January 27th I went to meet with the other 3 areas looking ahead on planning another joint camp out this year. It was a good meeting the conscious was to go forward and start planning to have the joint event again co-hosting with Burlington Cumberland/Salem and unity is must areas of NA. plaining is still very early right now we are working on a venue and getting some logo submissions for the T shirts tentative dates as of now are September 13th thru September 15th. We will meet again on March 17th at 2pm in the south jersey area to see where we are on venue and start to get more of planning going forward. We also have our dates and Venue set for our March and April events both events will be held at the Stratford Senior Center from 7-11 PM. We will also be starting the plaining for these events at today's subcommittee meeting. Our March event will be our annual game night and taco party so please GSRs when you make the announcements for this event remind everyone to bring along their favorite Card and board games. That event will be held on March 23rd flyers for that event are on the back table as well please take some. The last event we have scheduled at this time is April 20th this will be a Murder Mystery night we are trying out something new on the flyer there is a request for members to come out and participate in roles that will be needed to put on this murder mystery night.

Please GSRs when you make announcements for this event point out that the Activities Sub Committee is looking for members interested in playing these roles. If anyone is interested please have them reach out to myself or our treasurer Brad W, we are hoping to have the participating members make it to either the March or April subcommittee meeting or both to help with figuring out roles. All three events with be food, fun, and fellowship with a $5.00 suggest donation. Thank you for allowing me to serve. Activities chair Jeff H.

ACTIVITIES TREASURER:

Jeff H gave the activities treasurer's report but nothing was submitted to be included in the minutes.
