GSR REPORT FOR MARCH 9th, 2008 AREA SERVICE

Dear South Jersey Area Service Conference of Narcotics Anonymous Members,

Allow me to extend clean and healthy wishes from us at "Recovering on the Riverfront" as we carry the message of recovery found in the 12 Steps, Traditions to the best of our ability.

During Our group Conscience meeting held on Wed. Feb. 27 2008 We as a group voted in favor of Passing the Motion 02-08-04.

I would like to take this opportunity once again to mention the fact that I'm still in need of a sponsor to do my step work with. A few month ago you asked for a male addict with the willingness to get in contact with me to this date that has not come to pass. I'm hoping that you would remind anyone that in is a position to help me with my step work that I'm would be greatly appreciative of that.

finally in closing from "ALL OF US AT RECOVERING FROM THE RIVERFRONT" we'd like to extend "OUR" appreciation for your being in service and I thank you for allowing me to serve as well.

Humble and clean
J.T.

H&I SUBCOMMITTEE REPORT for March 2008

The H&I subcommittee met at St. Charles Borromeo School on Feb 17th at 6 pm.

South Jersey Area H & I currently services 40 commitments per month at 6 different facilities.

I am pleased to announce that we had a great turn out for the month of February, and all of the H&I commitments were filled.

The subcommittee voted into policy a system by which to reallocate the committments annually that best serves both H&I and the newcomer into the subcommittee.

The committee also voted into policy that within the framework of the chairperson listing qualifications needed by an addict wishing to be on the subcommittee, the stance that a subcommittee memeber can not be on drug-replacement therapy while in service to H&I.

If anyone has any questions or concerns please contact Amy W. @ 856-745-1050 or Mike T @ 609-502-4331.

The subcommittee would like to thank the South Jersey Area for your continued support and for the opportunity to be of service.

Public Information Chairperson
Kourtney B.
Report

I apologize that I have not been very active lately. Due to personal commitments and recovery from a bad case of the flu, my attention has been elsewhere. I apologize for my shortcomings in that respect. I can only promise, just for today, to focus on my service commitment as this area's PI Chair.

I previously reported on the need for assistance with a presentation to The Camden County drug court. I am still awaiting a call back from them to set up a presentation.

In April I would like to have a telephone training day and presentation at local high schools.

I would like to set up a regular monthly meeting. If anyone has any suggestions as to the time and place I would welcome those suggestions.

I continue to need support
Thank you to Carmen, Mickey and Jennifer T for volunteering.
Feel free to call me -
856-419-1289 - or email me
Kourtneyb71@aol.com. If you can help.

Finally, I need my login information for the web page.

Thank you for putting your trust in me
and for continuing to allow me to serve.

In Loving Service,

Policy Subcommittee Report

March 9, 2008

Hi fellow addicts.

Not much to report since our last Area Service meeting. The most current SJASC Policy and all subcommittee policies were forwarded to the Website Subcommittee and are now posted on our website. I will continue to update our Policy to reflect any policy changes that are made as a result of motions approved by the home groups. I also maintain updated electronic and hard copies so let me know if you or your homegroup would like a copy and don't have access to the internet and a printer.

I continue to be truly grateful for the trust that you have shown me by allowing me to serve our Area for another year - each and every one of you help me get another day clean. Thanks.

Suzanne H.

Hello all! I am happy to announce that all of the literature ordered this month has been on time. I should be able to fill all back orders and get the home groups back in shape with their lit. orders. Thank you for being patient with me the last few months.

To South Jersey Area Body;

At this time there is nothing new to report on the current project. The committee is meeting with the regional chairperson this month. I have contacted the world board by phone & email regarding future projects and am waiting for a response.

The Literature Review Committee wants to inform this body that it fully endorses the 6th Edition of the "Basic Text" and the new "Youth and Recovery" information pamphlets as to be voted on in the car report. If you care to have your voice heard on these issues, you can do so at www.Na.org, click on New Additions and then click on WSC 2008 Conference Approval Track Material.

As a point of interest, while perusing the NA world web site, under the bulletin section, I ran across a document titled "#30 Theft of NA Funds". Since this has been a topic of discussion at area on a number of occasions, I have printed put a copy and included it in my report.

NA World Services Bulletin

#30 theft of na funds

The following paper was written in 1996 and revised in 2002 in response to a number of letters indicating that theft of NA funds is a recurring issue in our fellowship. In preparing this paper, we have relied on the experience of many groups, area and regional service committees, convention corporations, and service offices as shared with us in correspondence and at workshops on the issue. We encourage you to make use of this valuable and often painfully learned experience in your management of NA funds.

Substantial donations are contributed by the NA Fellowship every year. These funds are given by NA members who trust that they will somehow help other addicts get clean. While this money is precious, the member's trust is even more so. We need to keep the image of that one member and that one donation in mind whenever we make decisions about handling NA's money.

Most of NA's money gets where it is supposed to go. NA members serving in positions of financial responsibility for the fellowship volunteer countless hours to make sure everything adds up. Services such as local phonelines are paid for; literature is purchased and available to members at meetings; tens of thousands of meetings take place every week in rooms for which NA pays rent. Many individual trusted servants follow guidelines and pass on funds that are used to further our primary purpose. All of these things happen because NA communities utilize responsible accounting practices.

SAFEGUARDING FUNDS

Theft can be avoided by consistently and diligently following responsible financial principles and practices. The pain and conflict caused when one of our members steals from us, as well as the loss of funds that might have gone to help the still-suffering addict, point to our responsibility to prevent theft from happening in the first place.

Most theft of fellowship funds occurs when precautionary measures are not in place or are in place but not used. Some of us have hesitated to either institute or use these measures because they make us uncomfortable--we believe that they are somehow insulting to the people we ask to serve, or they seem too troublesome to follow. However, the very best safeguard against theft is to remove the opportunity to steal. It is far more uncomfortable and troublesome to deal with a theft after it has taken place than to take measures to prevent it from happening in the first place.

SELECTING TRUSTED SERVANTS

Our Fourth Concept tells us how to select our trusted servants: "Effective leadership is highly valued in Narcotics Anonymous. Leadership qualities should be carefully considered when selecting trusted servants."

So what exactly are these "leadership qualities" the Fourth Concept tells us to look for? Honesty, integrity, maturity, and stability, both in recovery and in personal finances, are but a few. We often avoid asking questions regarding the financial stability of those we are considering for these types of positions, because those questions may be uncomfortable for us or we somehow feel they are inappropriate, given the spiritual nature of our program. We sometimes ignore evidence that a person is having a difficult time with his or her personal finances and should not have the additional burden of responsibility for NA's money. Not only is it okay to ask members standing for election about their qualifications in these areas, it is irresponsible not to.

Substantial clean time and financial stability should be required for positions where money is handled. Many NA communities have found it helpful to develop a list of questions regarding employment, service experience, experience with handling funds, and financial stability. These questions are then asked of all nominees as a matter of course, so that people do not feel singled out based on personalities.

RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT

"NA funds are to be used to further our primary purpose, and must be managed responsibly." Our Eleventh Concept points out how very important NA funds are. In keeping with the spiritual principles of this concept, guidelines regarding the handling of funds should be developed and adhered to. The guidelines should include both recognized accounting practices and procedures that ensure the accountability of our trusted servants.

The Treasurer's Handbook is an excellent resource for groups and service committees to use in instituting accounting procedures. All guidelines should include appropriate safeguards, such as monthly reporting, regular audits, two-signature checking accounts, and monthly reconciliation of original bank statements. For groups without checking accounts, many of these practices can still be incorporated into the handling of NA funds.

To paraphrase one of our sayings, an addict alone with NA money is in bad company. It is critically important that all processes be monitored by another person: two people count receipts; two people make the bank deposit (and this should be done immediately, not the following day); two people reconcile the original bank statements; and most importantly, two people are always present when any funds are disbursed. Financial records should be readily available to other trusted servants. It is important to note that other assets, such as convention merchandise, literature, and office equipment, should be treated as carefully as money.

Financial procedures need to be written into guidelines to require a review and signature of those responsible for handling funds before they are put into positions of responsibility. Members who know they will be held to standardized accounting and auditing procedures will most likely behave in a responsible manner. Include a statement that theft will not be tolerated, and outline the process that will be followed if a theft occurs. If you are unsure about how to write adequate financial guidelines, please contact the World Service Office for assistance.

WHEN SAFEGUARDS FAIL

If we develop and follow these procedures, we will make it almost impossible for anyone to misappropriate or steal NA funds. If someone does steal from us, the first question we should ask is one of ourselves: Did we adhere to all of our accounting procedures and safeguards? If the answer is no, we as a service committee also bear substantial responsibility for the theft. We will want to review our procedures to ensure that they are complete and resolve to adhere to them in the future.

But suppose the answer is yes, we followed our guidelines to the letter. We did everything in our power to prevent a theft, and someone stole from us anyway. When this happens, there is often a mixture of reactions, ranging from, "Let's forgive and forget; after all, we're addicts who are prone to acting out on our disease. We don't want to run the individual out of meetings and into a possible relapse," to "Let's throw the thief in jail!" But whatever it is, we don't want our initial emotional reaction to dictate the outcome of the situation.

Our program of recovery provides every member with an opportunity to behave responsibly in difficult situations and make amends. We are closest to the spiritual principles of our program when we begin to deal with a theft by encouraging the member who has stolen funds to make amends, which can then provide healing for all involved.

This is not to say that the disappearance of NA funds should be taken lightly or that a service committee should sit and passively wait for a member who has stolen funds to be moved to make amends. We instead encourage a process that is both responsible and spiritual, taking steps of increasing severity should they prove necessary.

First of all, a thorough review of all books and financial records should be conducted to make sure the funds were actually misappropriated. How much? By whom? What failing in the accounting procedures and safeguards allowed this to happen?

If it becomes clear that money has indeed been taken, the group or service committee should then schedule a meeting, making absolutely sure the individual(s) who took the money is informed of the meeting and given the opportunity to present his or her point of view. At this meeting, there should be a format that allows time for everyone involved to express their feelings and concerns. This allows everyone to give their input and may also allow a "defusing process" to occur. After all sides have been heard, a break in the meeting format is encouraged to allow all present enough time to get in touch with their own Higher Power and focus on spiritual principles, before coming back to decide the best course of action.

If the individual admits to the theft and agrees to pay back the missing funds, a restitution agreement can be developed. Such an agreement can include regular payments at any interval acceptable to all involved, though it is best not to drag out the process unnecessarily. Most agreements specify regular weekly or monthly payments until the full amount is repaid. We strongly suggest drafting a legally binding document, utilizing legal advice if possible, and having it signed and witnessed. Let the individual know that if the restitution agreement is not adhered to, you intend to take legal action based on the signed and witnessed restitution agreement.

A report about the situation should be published, and regular reports on the status of the restitution agreement should be published until the agreement is satisfied. Protecting the identity of the person involved is secondary to being accountable to the fellowship for its funds and ensuring that the person is not put in a position where he or she may do further harm.

Again balancing spirituality with responsibility, we have found that it is best to remove the individual from his or her service position and not consider the person for another position until he or she has dealt with the issue through the process of the steps.

If the individual does not appear at the special meeting, you will need to ensure that every effort to contact the person has been made. Use registered mail to send a letter explaining that an audit of financial records has been performed, that facts show the individual is responsible for missing money, that repayment is expected, and what the consequences will be if the individual does not respond to the letter. Copies of the letter should be put in a safe place for further reference. This may seem severe, but if the previous steps have been taken without result, sometimes something this harsh is the impetus that encourages the individual to make restitution.

If the individual refuses to repay the money, or agrees to a plan but does not follow through with the agreement, or if the person has disappeared, it may be appropriate to take legal action. The decision to take legal action is an option that does not compromise traditions or spiritual principles, but it should be our last resort, opted for only when everything else has been tried. We strongly suggest that the decision to prosecute be thoroughly explored before going ahead, using area and regional service committees and world services as resources.

RESOLUTION AND RECOVERY

Even if a successful resolution is reached, many of us will still be angry and hurt and may want to shun the person involved. Although this is understandable, we have to remind ourselves that NA's primary purpose is to carry the message to the addict who still suffers. We also need to remember that our disease will surface if we are not diligently working a program of recovery. As NA members practicing spiritual principles, we should all support the individual in continuing his or her recovery, utilizing meetings, a sponsor, and the Twelve Steps. We should offer the same love and support we would to someone who has relapsed by using drugs.

The misappropriation of NA funds affects groups, service committees, and world services in their efforts to carry the message to the still-suffering addict. The process necessary to deal with such incidents typically has long-term effects--conflict between members, disunity, disillusioned members--on any NA community, directly affecting the newcomer. The safeguards recommended in this bulletin not only protect our funds, but protect us from our disease. We implore NA communities worldwide to develop and follow procedures that protect NA funds; doing so will keep our future secure.

Treasurer's Report – Bret W. and Mike B.

March 9, 2008

Hello South Jersey Area. We hope Daylight Saving Time has been quite agreeable with everyone so far. We would like to thank everyone for his or her patience last month, as well as the continued support in reducing monies to the largest and least number of bills. For all trusted servants that need a check from me, please see me at the end of business today.

Area Disbursements February 10, 2008

We provided the following checks:

1. $20.00 representing Area Service meeting
2. $2,488.12 to WSO of NA for literature supply
3. $91.49 to Public Storage for February storage rent
4. $306.69 to Diana T. for monthly secretarial expenses
5. $104.00 to Collingswood Postmaster for PO box for 2008
6. $10.00 to SJASC to cover a check from the old account

Item #6 came due to a ten dollar check that was processed from the old Area Service account with Commerce Bank. Kevin (chairperson) and I went to Commerce Bank in Cherry Hill to fix the problem. Initially Commerce was going to charge us a $35.00 overdraft charge, plus two $25.00 account service charges, for a grand total of $95.00. After we talked to the account representative, they removed the additional charges and let us cover the $10.00 check, then closed the account permanently so that any additional outstanding checks would not be processed with that account, thus reopening the account.

Regional Business/Disbursements

None this month

Subcommittee Business/Disbursements

1. $10.00 representing H&I rent (St. Charles)
2. $38.52 representing H&I literature

Current Finances

The deposit from last month was $3,565.54. According to our records from February 10, we received $1,543.14 in Area Donations, and $2,022.40 in Literature Purchases. After the expenses above, the bank statement balance coming into this month's Area service is $7,920.40 (including our $1,000.00 Prudent Reserve).

With great willingness, we thank you again for your patience and tolerance, and we thank you for allowing us to serve.

Bret W.

Treasurer's Report – Addendum

March 16, 2008

It was brought to my attention at Area Service on March 9th that an error had been made in the distribution of the checkbooks between the Area Service Conference and the Area Activities Treasury. This was unintentional, but it has been taken care of. I'd like to take a minute to explain what happened and how it was rectified.

Previously, the South Jersey Area Service account and the Activities accounts were denoted on the checks as "South Jersey Area Service Conference" and "South Jersey Area Service Conference: Activities Committee." The old accounts were closed at the end of 2007 and new accounts were opened using funds from those two accounts. The bank then notified me that the checks had arrived and would be waiting for me at the Glassboro branch. I stopped at the Glassboro Commerce Bank branch and was given two boxes of checks, which confused me. Both sets of checks said simply "South Jersey Area Service Conference." I glanced at the account numbers and saw they looked the same and thought that the bank had made an error.

I started using one of the books of checks at the next Area Service, which was February 10. I used the checkbook to write checks as described in my March 9 report, and to make deposits. All checks written were covered by the funds provided in the deposits.

At the March Area Service, John T. (Activities Treasurer) asked me if I noticed anything missing from the Area operating account. I told him I hadn't looked at the statements because Kevin (Chairperson) had just given them to me. When I looked at them I noticed that all the deposits and checks I wrote last month were applied to the Activities account and that there was no activity at all on the Area operating account. I then checked the account number again with the checkbook I had in my possession and noticed that the checks I had been using were from the Activities account, although they were identical to the other checkbook.

To rectify the error, and because I had already written checks on that account again for March, I continued to use the checkbook for the deposits and additional checks. Afterwards, I did an accounting of the outstanding checks against the deposits and calculated that a single check of $457.57 from the Activities account would bring the Area account to the proper balance and still leave enough to cover the remaining outstanding checks. This would leave Activities with the proper balance of 1537.89 and everything would be back to normal. I wrote out the check, met up with John T. and had him sign it, then gave him the proper checks and went to deposit the check into the Area operating account. This was done on Monday, March 10.

Hopefully this will answer any questions about what happened and how it was fixed, but if anyone has any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

In service,
Bret W.

South Jersey Website Committee Report 3/9/2008

Hello Everyone,

The www.southjerseyna.org website is up and running.

We have uploaded all committee policies except the Public Information committee's policies and guidelines. We have also uploaded the Lit supply order form, Area donation form, SJASC motion form, CAR Report (2008) and the minutes for February. We will continue to upload and archive future area minutes. If we could have them and any other communication or form submitted digitally, that would be a big help.

We ask that each committee check their webpage on our site for accuracy. Please submit your committee's meeting time and address, so we can post them on the website.

Groups and committees can submit to have there announcements posted in the following areas.

- Group anniversaries section.
- Groups in need of support (Scroll Bar).
- Each committee has their own page to post important information
- Activities and groups can use the events page.

As you can tell there is still much more information and content that would be useful. We are still working on the site and need the input of the area, groups and members to make this a useful tool for the fellowship.

To the best of our knowledge the meetings listed on the website are accurate. If you know of any meeting that is inaccurate please contact our committee using the meeting update form found on the bottom left of each page.

We would also like to have the www.southjerseyna.org website listed on our area meeting directory.

In service,

Chris H
